LEGAL: A federal judge in Delaware on Friday declined to dismiss gun charges against Hunter Biden, one of the two criminal cases against Joe Biden’s son as the Democratic U.S. president ramps up his campaign for re-election.

CLARK SET TO GO #1

Caitlin Clark to be obvious top choice for Indiana Fever with No. 1 pick

The 2024 WNBA Draft class is taking shape. Headlining draft decisions was the declaration of Iowa Hawkeyes superstar Caitlin Clark, who announced her intentions to enter the WNBA on Feb. 29.

Clark became the all-time leading scorer in college basketball this season, is viewed by most as the top prospect in a draft class full of star power. The Indiana Fever finished the 2023 season with a 13-27 record and won the 2024 draft lottery, giving them the first overall selection. While Indiana has held on to the top pick, several off-season trades have impacted the remainder of the first-round draft order.

With one of the greatest to ever play college basketball set to enter the professional ranks, here is an updated look at the 2024 WNBA Draft order.

BREAKING NEWS: In a prepared statement about the charging decision, Marion County Prosecutor Ryan Mears cited Dennis’ prior gun-related conviction, the nature of the shooting and state law as the reason the teen’s case was moved to adult court. Prosecutors also have asked for a greater bond in the case, raising concerns about the “physical safety of another person or the community,” as well as GPS monitoring for the teen.
